Awesome!Von gizmalleyIf you need to read this, it means you haven't read parts one and two, or you'd just buy this book and not bother with the review. 100 Bullets is a mixture of Pulp Fiction, James Bond and Boys 'n the Hood. The artwork is awesome and as the plot slowly thickens, it gets more and more amazing. But you'll need to read the other two books first, or you won't understand a thing!

Synopsis From red-hot creator Brian Azzarello (Hellblazer), more gritty pulp fiction, with enough intrigue, blood-letting and hard-hitting action to rival Preacher. The ground-breaking series continues. Agent Graves, the man with an attache case, a gun and 100 untraceable bullets, offers three more people the chance to avenge a past wrong. But when he brings an estranged father and son together in murder, all hell breaks loose. Which may, of course, be exactly what he intended! Story continues from 100 Bullets: First Shot, Last Call and 100 Bullets: Split Second Chance.
