Sehr hilfreich und bietet Klarheit fr Menschen wie mich, ich habe einfach nur eine chaotische Schulzeit.1 Sache wre zu bemngeln, und zwar, dass im Text auerhalb der 40 Tipps in jedem zweiten Satz der Begriff 100.000 dollar debt vorkommt. Klar hat der Autor damit recht, nur fr mich etwas nervig, da in Deutschland dieses Problem nicht besteht.Die Tipps an sich, sehr ganzheitlich und generell super! Habe das Buch in schtzungsweise 2 Stunden gelesen.1 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. EnttuschendVon KundeOberflchtig geschrieben mit vielen ungeprften Behauptungen. Zum Beispiel als Alternative zum Arzt werden wird Heilpraktiker Ausbildung empfohlen. Manche Vorschlge sind interessant aber sicher nicht als Alternative zum Studium, eher als Anregung für die Freizeit. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Should be required reading for all high school seniors and their parents! Von Tiina Kutz Excellent, clear, unconventional, outside-the-box thinking about what really constitutes an education and preparation for life. If you only have one short, precious life to live, shouldn't you spend it doing things you personally find valuable, instead of blindly accepting the dictates of others and taking out a potentially staggering amount of debt in order to pursue a career YOU MAY FIND YOU DON'T EVEN LIKE? And unlike with a mortgage you can't just sell the house and walk away debt-free. Someone give this man an award for pointing out a huge problem that just hasn't been defined as a problem yet because it's part of the air we breathe.

Kurzbeschreibung Kids at 18 have no idea what they want to do in life. The world is a very big place. Its bigger than five classes a day on philosophy or chemical engineering. Most kids at 18 don't relish philosophy but they relish the experience of freedom and being out of their parents home for the first time in their lives. Young adults have a lot of energy and should use it. But the problem is that college costs have risen 1000% in the past 30 years while healthcare has risen 700% and inflation has risen only 300%. Colleges have made use of the myth that you can't get a job unless you have a college education. But a rose needs space to bloom. Here are 40 alternatives to help that rose bloom. And to help keep innovation, creativity, and youthful energy alive and well. Kurzbeschreibung Kids at 18 have no idea what they want to do in life. The world is a very big place.
