Don't Stray from the Path!Von ZappleAnother splendid book in the Artt of Early Learning Series and Smart Artt helps a fish, Bart, (a toy on his mobile) return to water just like in his grandpa's story. While he's out, his grandma realises he's disappeared and soon everybody's searching for him. A charming story full of love, tenderness and a warm message within that your little slugs will love listening to at bedtime, and with clear, colourful illustrations that can be easily enjoyed and understood. Let's hope there's more to come in the series.
