Another comprehensive Korean resourceVon Christopher SunditaWant to learn Korean than from what is taught in phrasebooks? Wanting to have a very basic command of the Korean language? Then this book is most likely for you! It's very rare that textbooks on the Korean language are very high quality, this newcomer is of high quality.The section on the sound systems of a language is what I consider the most vital to a language book. This book accomplishes it real well. It uses a form of IPA alongside "layman's terms." If those don't work out, then use the accompanying CD. It also teaches the writing system, Han'geul, and the allophones (varieties of a sound). Romanization is used at a minimum and disappears around lesson 5. The Romanization isn't McCune-Reischauer or Yale, but it's a modified form of the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA). Each lesson contains several brief dialogues followed by short vocabulary notes in Korean and English. After that section, Korean grammar used in the dialogue is thoroughly explained. Charts and sentence examples are used as learning aids. There are also exercises on the different politeness levels of Korean and reviews of previous lessons. The end of the book features a two-way Korean and English vocabulary and the answer guide. The authors were certainly correct in saying that this is comprehensive and detailed. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Klasse Lehrbuch! Von zumzum Bin vollstens zufrieden mit diesem Buch, gute grammatische und auch kulturspezifische Erklärungen. Besonders gefällt mir die Wortwahl und Schreibstil. Die einzige negative Anmerkung ist das Layout, schade, dass nicht der gleiche Standard wie im Übungsbuch vorzufinden ist. Besonders die "Merkmale" sind grau unterlegt, so dass es eher schwieriger ist, den Text zu lesen. Trotzdem bin ich begeistert. 0 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. ok Von hn50931 Nicht schlecht, aber auch nicht Spitze! Wahrscheinlich gibt es kein besseres Buch auf dem Markt. Schade, die Bücher für Mandarin/Chinesisch sind besser ausgereift.
