Private Story mit dem Himmlischen VaterVon Nadin WedemannStefan Driess gibt Einblicke in seine persnliche Beziehung und Erlebnisse mit dem Himmellischen Vater....durch Bibel lesen, Gebet ist es mglich diese Erfahrungen zu machen

eine persnliche Beziehung aufzubauen, denke ich!Danke Jesus Christus fr Stefan!

KurzbeschreibungI dont want this bastard!I was only a boy when I heard these terrible words. I cant tell you exactly how old I was. But the man shouting was my father. He was drunk and he was referring to me.So begins the true story of one mans journey from rejection to rebellion. Denied the love of a good father and suffering from abuse, Stefan looked for comfort and meaning in all the wrong places, from drugs and alcohol, to hooliganism and the occult. Driven by inner voices shouting kill yourself, Stefan went to a vineyard outside a village in his native Germany and prepared to bid farewell to this world. But in the very act of ending it all, Stefan found the beginning of a new adventure one that would lead him to the father hed been longing for all his life.This unforgettable tale of one mans journey from being an orphan to being a son is sure to inspire, amuse, move, and enlighten you. If you are asking, father, where are you? this is the book for you.Dr. Mark Stibbe, bestselling author, script doctor, and CEO of Kingdom Writing SolutionsI have known Stefan for a decade now.In reading this book, I can see how only God could have healed the boy and raised this kind of man.This is a But God book, meaning only God can show up and bring this type of life change.Dr.SharonStone, President and Founder of Christian International EuropeStefan Driess is married to Louise and is the father of Grace and John David, and lives in Manchester, England. He is a motivational speaker, leadership coach and Author and Producer. Over the years he has been involved in projects such as helping young offenders in Germany and rescuing children from the sex trade in India.KurzbeschreibungI dont want this bastard!I was only a boy when I heard these terrible words.
