Von Dean Koontz : In Odd We Trust (Odd Thomas Graphic Novel) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised In Odd We Trust (Odd Thomas Graphic Novel):

Gelungene Manga-AdaptionVon KundenrezensionenDie Figur des Odd thomas hat nun seit letztem Monat bereits vier Romane durchlaufen und sich dabei ziemlich weit entwickelt. Mit dieser in Kooperation mit Queenie Chen erstellten Graphic-Novel im Manga-Stil geht Koontz chronologisch vor die ereignisse in "OddThomas"(dt. "die Anbetung") und zeigt die Hauptfiguren der Handlung in etwas anderer Weise. Die Geschichte und die Darstellungsart können insgesamt als gelungen gesehen werden und werden - in meinen Augen - sowohl Altfans der Figur, wie auch "Neuankömmlinge" begeistern können. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. This is a true work of Dean Koontz in every way. Von Der Adler This is a tightly woven story written in the excellence that we have come to know in Dean Koontz. I downloaded the story onto my Kindle Paperwhite, and my only regret is that the text was nearly unreadable. It was entirely too small to be read comfortably. I believe it to be due in part to the fact that the text was no text at all, but a graphical representation of text. This means that the technology of the Kindle is not geared to enlarging graphics as it enlarges true text. Other than that, this is a work of the highest caliber, and I recommend it highly. The interplay with Storm Llewellyn is not to be missed. Odd and Storm make a wonderfully believable couple. This is a must-have for Odd Thomas fans! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Odd Thomas is back! Von Mark Caldwell I got one of these "Odd" books years ago and within a few pages I was hooked! Since then I have bought and read ALL OF THEM. What's not to like about a young guy who sees and helps the ghosts of dead people. Odd's best friend is the mute ghost of Elvis! Dramatic, thrilling, sad and humorous...this series has it all!
