Von Official zu OfficialVon Ein KundeAls Football Official hat man es nicht leicht, aber man stellt sich immer wieder aufs Neue auf das Feld. Egal welches Niveau, egal welche Liga.Und es ist schn zu sehen, dass es auch NFL Profis nicht viel besser geht. Wie man aus Chad Brown's Erzhlungen nehmen kann, hat er genausoviele Niederlagen einstecken mssen, wie jeder Football Official, egal ob NFL, College oder auch PeeWee.Wer sich schon immer gefragt hat, warum die Schiedrichter ihre gelben Flags werfen, und warum nicht, und warum Flags auch hin und wieder zurckgenommen werden, der sollte sich dieses (Gott sei dank in Englisch gehalten) Buch zulegen. Vielleicht hilft dies ein wenig uns Zebras zu verstehen.Fr jeden Official ist dies sowieso eine Pflichtlektre, die einem immer wieder aufbaut, um auch diese Worte sagen zu knnen:'I'm not there. I'm there, when I get to Superbowl.... No, I'm not there. Not yet. But I am gonna get there. I know, I am.'Vielleicht zwar nicht unbedingt zur Superbowl, aber vielleicht zur Austrian Bowl,German Bowl, oder vielleicht sogar zur World Bowl--Ein Austro-Germanisches Zebra :)0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. How the NFL is WonVon J. JacksonMr. Brown's book is very insightful and gives a hint of understanding to someone who knows very little about the perplexing game of football. I found this book quite humorist after reading this fast-pace novel about Mr. Brown's early childhood and his experiences as a NFL player. When looking at the games with my husband, he has made some of the same comments about coaches and players that Chad Brown acknowledges in his book. The coachs complain and make excuses for loosing a game and blame the loss on the officials. I can only imagine the pressure these men must feel while trying to call the game correctly and follow the guidelines of the NFL.From my experiences, I have noted that the majority of authors compose a book about a topic in which they have little or no background in. To the contrary, Mr. Brown, in my opinion, has written an amazing book about his experiences, both on and off the football field. After reading this book, Mr. Brown has done an excellent job on changing my perspective about football by writing a humerous insight on "Inside the Meat Grinder." :)0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
