She launched her business with $400 and only the space of her dining room table. Danielle's venture quickly grew by 230% in the first year, and she had hired 25 employees before 25. In 2010, she was nominated to Top Businesses to Follow on Twitter, Best Pennsylvania Women in Business and Best New Business in Pittsburgh. She is an active volunteer, adventure seeker, and lives in Pittsburgh with her chihuahua, Sinatra. Learn more about her business at: www.virtualassistusa.com. Danielle has opted to generously donate 100% of her proceeds to the Cystic Fibrosis Association, and to the Susan G. Komen Foundation, in honor of her friend's mother, Helen, and great aunt, Josie. The other co-authors of this book have tremendously inspiring stories, and come from diverse backgrounds and industries.
