A book to share Von Ein Kunde This is a book to read for yourself, and to share with others. Recently a friend, who had been in a car accident and also was worried for the sufferings of two families close to her, said to me "Why does God allow all this to happen? It's too much!" I didn't have the words to answer. But with this book, I now have something I can pass on to her that may help. I plan to keep extra copies, to share with others going through difficult times in their lives, as we all do! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. tells the truth about our relationship with God; encouraging Von Ein Kunde Stormie writes the truth about what goes on when people face trials in their lives and what is needed to experience victory in that time. A very real, warm and encouraging book, it also speaks directly about core issues that most people face. Most importantly, Stormie has backed her writing with the Word of God. The verses quoted from the Bible helps the reader apply them to his/her own situation...many verses in fact have taken on new meaning, from the way Stormie has picked them and used them. Stormie has also relied on the power of prayer to help write this book, as is gathered from the prayer warriors mentioned in her acknowledgement. A really good book to read if you are in search of God's light and truth in the midst of your trials
