Lately, Andrew has been copying Karen a lot, and she's getting sick of it. Will he ever stop? Meanwhile, due to circumstances, Karen and Andrew will be taking an advance pottery class, taught by their nanny, Merry. Karen is sure she can handle it, but she soon learns that it's just too hard to keep up with the class. Then, Karen passes one of Isabel's (the best student in the class) pieces as her own. Now Karen feels awful. What will Merry say when she finds out that Karen's work really isn't hers? 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Pretty good! Von Ein Kunde This book is about a girl named Karen who has a new nanny named Merry. Because of Karen and Merry's schedule, Karen and her little brother Andrew join Merry's pottery class even though the kids in the class are a little bit older. Karen wants to prove to Merry that she is the best potter ever. Then there is a girl, Isabel who is a great potter. Karen gets so angry she does something very bad which makes her a copycat. It is very drastic. I thought it was very good. I would highly recommend this book. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Will Andrew Ever Stop Copying Karen?
