KurzbeschreibungThis is the story of a loving mother sparrow who loses her eggs at the ocean shore. Based on a classic from the Vedas, this tale describes the power of determination, patience and courage. The colorful and beautifully illustrated pages convey the message that no matter how difficult the task, if one is engaged with determination success can be achieved. In this story children will get a glimpse of how a small, seemingly insignificant entity traverses difficulty through persistence and will power. This book will truly teach kids a good moral lesson! It is recommended reading for ages 3-12.
