A Must Buy!Von His disciple; kgroth@flash.netLeroy Eims has hit the nail on the head with this book! My copy of it is about 10 or 11 years old and I still use it! Without a doubt, Eims has mastered one-on-one discipleship in this book. He shares with us the importance of disciple-making and how to do it correctly and systematically. He tells us what to look for in a potential disciple and the four progressive steps in the life of a Bible student: a convert, a disciple, a worker, and a leader. If you want to know the nuts and bolts of personal discipleship, this book is for you! Does anyone have his email or snail mail address? If so, please email it to me! Comprehensive overview on the How To's of Disciple Making.Von Ein KundeAs someone that has the responsibility of making Disciples I found this book to be very helpful. It reaffirmed many tried and proven methods of Disciple Making. It also gave insight in the the process of choosing people that are ready to be disciplined. It gave several lists of things that can be used in a disciple making ministry, all of them were very usefule. I hope that you find this bok as enjoyable as I did.

Kurzbeschreibung"Every believer in Jesus Christ deserves the opportunity of personal nurture and development." says LeRoy Eims. But all too often the opportunity isn't there. We neglect the young Christian in our whirl of programs, church services, and fellowship groups. And we neglect to raise up workers and leaders who can disciple young believers into mature and fruitful Christians. In simple, practical, and biblical terms, LeRoy Eims revives the lost art of disciple making. He explains: - How the early church disciplined new Christians - How to meet the basic needs of a growing Christian - How to spot and train potential workers - How to develop mature, godly leaders "True growth takes time and tears and love and patience," Eims states. There is no instant maturity. This book examines the growth process in the life of a Christian and considers what nurture and guidance it takes to develop spiritually qualified workers in the church.Kurzbeschreibung"Every believer in Jesus Christ deserves the opportunity of personal nurture and development." says LeRoy Eims.
