Frustrating!Von Ein KundeI was really looking forward to reading this book because Michelle Reid is one of my favourite romance writers, but I was really disappointed. Basically the heroine in this was so soppy it was untrue. She thinks about leaving her lover because the relationship isn't going anywhere and there is no prospect of a marriage proposal in sight, but lo and behold when he touches her she no longer sticks to her convictions about leaving. Basically she is a doormat and the hero seems to get his own way all the time. I waited all the way through this book for the heroine to stand up for herself, but she just let herself be used all the way. All in all there was no real action in this book, no volatile emotions or suspense, not even a jealousy tantrum in sight. I just hope that Michelle Reid's next book returns to her usual standards.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
