Eine irische Mysteriengeschichte vom Autor des "Dracula", leider ziemlich langweiligVon NightreaderBram Stoker war ein sehr vielseitiger Autor, sodass einem zwangslufig manche seiner Geschichten gefallen und manche nicht. Diese hat zwar recht gruselige Facetten, zieht sich aber so trge dahin, dass ich das Ende nicht mehr erreicht habe.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Stoker creates a thrilling mystery of political intrigue.Von Ein KundeFor fans of Bram Stoker this is an excellent mystery. The reader is transported back to Aberdeen, Scotland after the destruction of the American battle ship the "Maine." Here the reader is witness to a consuming mystery involving the supernatural and a world in political upheaval. As usual Stoker's character's shine, particularly the heroine Marjorey. This tell of supernaturall intrigue will keep you entralled and eager to read more of this wonderful and underappreciated author's work.
