Reviews from seven-year-olds Von Ein Kunde The following reviews were written by four 7-year-olds in a classroom book club I led. We studied reviews from .com before they wrote theirs to see how there can be many different opinions on one title: Annie says: I would recommend this book to you because it is neat how Freddy Dissel started out having nothing special and ended up doing something all of his own. He gets to be the green kangaroo in a school play. Ashleigh says:

I think this book is funny because my 4-year-old brother is the middle child and me and my sister boss him around like Freddy. I think everyone should have this book! David says: This book is about a boy named Freddy who plays the green kangaroo in the school play. I think it is stupid because he hops all around saying, "I'm the Green Kangaroo." I would not recommend a friend read this book because it is stupid. Rachel says: I think this book is funny because when Freddy's teacher, Ms. Gumber, told him "break a leg" he thought he should really fall off the stage and break a leg. I would recommend this book to you because it is neat and I think it is neat because the illustrator really expressed what the words described. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An amusing, fun book to read! Von Ein Kunde This book is about a 2nd grader named Freddy. He is a middle child, and sometimes feels a bit lonely. He wants to show everyone how special he is. He has a brother named Mike who is in 6th grade. Mike is going to be in his 5th grade class play. When Freddy found out that his brother was in a play, he also wanted to be in it. Freddy went to Miss Matson, the plays director, and asked if he could be in the play. Ms. Matson told Freddy that there was one more part left, the part of the green kangaroo. Freddy was thrilled and took the part. On the day of the play Freddy did his part perfectly. The audience applauded loudly. Freddy was proud of himself. He finally fit in. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The green kangaroo is a good book. Von Ein Kunde I really enjoyed The one in the middle is the green kangaroo. It had comedy, fussing, and problems. The main characters are Freddy Dissel and his brother Michel and his sister Ellen. Freddy didn't like being small because he did not like being out of the fun. One day at school there was a poster in the hall that said MEETING FOR SCHOOL PLAY Fifth AND SIX GRADERS ONLY. He went to class and told his teacher he wanted to be in the play but his teacher told him that it was only for the big kids. But she told him that she would ask Ms. Matson about a special part for him. If you want to hear the ending of the story read the book.

Kurzbeschreibung Quintessentially funny Judy Blume! Second grader Freddy Dissel has that left-out kind of feeling. Life seems lonely when you're the middle kid in the family. Freddy feels like "the peanut butter part of a sandwich," squeezed between an older brother and little sister. But now for the first time it's Freddy's chance to show everyone, including himself, just how special he is! From the Trade Paperback edition. Kurzbeschreibung Quintessentially funny Judy Blume!
