Von Elizabeth von Arnim : The Pastors Wife (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Pastors Wife (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Von Arnim's witty portrayal of fin-de-siecle married life.Von Noreen O'ConnorThis is one of Von Arnim's very best novels, full of surprising wit and sometimes caustic criticism of the lonely existence of an intelligent British woman in a turn-of-the-century aristocratic German household. In particular, the childbirth scenes are chilling, and reminiscent of Charlotte Perkins Gilman's The Yellow Wallpaper, though Von Arnim typically treats the topic with more humor. The ending is as brilliant as those of her contemporary Edith Wharton.
