It is about a boy, his mom, and sister. They share a house with a girl and her twin sons. The twins' grandfather becomes the boy's pigman. My favorite part was when Paul met the twins' grandfather. I liked this book because it was not boring and interesting.

Like when Paul got in a fight with a kid from school and his sister saved him. I would recommend this book to young teens.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The book was very interesting, and fun to read.Von Ein KundeThis was a book about Paul Zindel's childhood and the problems that he had to face with his family and friends. Luckily Nonno Frankie was able to help him out and become his "pigman", or a person that helps someone out when they need it the most. Nonno Frankie helped liven up Paul's life, and he helped him through some tough times. This was an excellent book!!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Paul Zindel at the finest! This book is a masterpiece!Von Ein KundeI can't put this into words it was so great. All of the suspense, action, drama, and Zindel's sense of humor made this book great! He is probably the only man that can put an auto-biography into a teenage perspective. That is what makes this book so appealing.

That was when I met my Pigman, whose real name was Nonno Frankie."The year Paul Zindel, his sister, Betty, and their mother lived in the town of Travis, Staten Island, New York, was the most important time of his teenage life. It was the year he and Jennifer Wolupopski were best friends. It was the year of the apple tree, the water-head baby, and Cemetery Hill. And it was the year he met Nonno Frankie Vivona, who became his Pigman.Every word of his story is true. And The Pigman Me has an added bonus--one crucial piece of information: the secret of life, according to the Pigman.From School Library JournalGrade 7-12?A popular author turns teen troubles into humor as he recalls the year he, his sister, and their neurotic, wheeler-dealer mother shared a house with another single mother and her rambunctious, identical, preschool twins. Salvation comes in the form of his "pigman."
