Von Rough Guides : The Rough Guide to Germany (Rough Guide to...) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Rough Guide to Germany (Rough Guide to...):

Many spelling mistakesVon KundeHaving bought this book for English-speaking guests, as a German native, I have to say there are a ton of spelling mistakes in German and inconsistancies that makes you wonder, who wrote the book and who proofread it. They are saying that one of their authors grew up in Germany, but how do you miss these mistakes

(e.g. writing "Michael" as the nickname for the "Michel" in Hamburg; Hegetor instead of Hegertor in Osnabrück, but doing it correctly in the next paragraph, etc.)? Any decent proofreader should have seen that. If it would be just spelling mistakes in the text, it wouldn't matter so much, but as it is the sights, they don't spell correctly, one really wonders, how much research they have done. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
