HervorragendVon MeredithChrist wird man höchstens nur manchmal, wenn man das in freikirchlichen Kreisen als so biblisch angepriesene "bergabegeben" (mit)betet. Dass es mitnichten biblisch ist bzw. im NT, wenn, dann nur marginal vorkommt, beweist der Autor in dem vorliegenden Buch.Nur zu empfehlen!Die Lektüre des Buches und v.a. die Anwendung seines Inhaltes würde einiges an der gängigen Gemeindepraxis ändern.

KurzbeschreibungFor more than 60 years the Christian church has gone around the world telling people to "pray this little prayer after me" in order to be saved or converted. Some call it "Asking Jesus into your heart" or 'Giving your heart to the Lord' or praying the Sinner's Prayer. But would it surprise you to learn that such a thing is found nowhere in the entire Bible? Is there ever a time when an apostle or evangelist in the New Testament leads someone in such a "salvation prayer" - or anything like it? No - never. We have records of literally thousands of people becoming converted in the Bible, yet not once does anyone employ such a method. The "little prayer" simply does not exist. So why are we going around the world getting people 'saved' in a way that is totally different from the Bible? And is such a salvation really any salvation at all? What is the actual pattern of conversion that the apostles did use? All these questions and more are answered in this provocative book. Andrew Strom is a Christian author and speaker, founder of RevivalSchool.com and the international REVIVAL list. He has preached and ministered in many nations around the world.
