Von Nancy Williams, Margie Deutsch Lash, Gretchen Andrews : The Stone Age Baby in a Techno Society (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Stone Age Baby in a Techno Society (English Edition):

Kundenrezensionen Hilfreichste Kundenrezensionen 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nur für Nur-Hausfrauen und/oder Nur-Mütter empfehlenswert! Von M. Schulz Habe mir viel mehr erwartet. Leider handelt es sich um eine Art Essay-Sammlung von verschiedenen Autoren. Daher: Viel Redundanz, da jeder Autor für sich meint, eine Einführung zum Thema geben zu müssen. Wenn eine Frau mit Kleinkind arbeiten möchte, sollte sie dieses Buch besser nicht lesen, denn laut diesem Buch kann eine solche Frau keine gute Mutter sein und fgt ihrem Kind nur Schaden zu.

Kurzbeschreibung Developmentally, babies have not changed much over the eons in terms of how they grow and what they need as newborns. Yet, society has changed in dramatic ways, often making it difficult for mothers and babies to remain together during the critical early years of their life. Barriers exist in most societies making uninterrupted mothering almost a thing of the past in many communities. This has frightening implications for the future with respect to the health and well-being of our entire world. Topics including societal norms juxtaposed to the basic needs of a child, healthy motherhood behaviors, and possible ideas for moving our world to a better place are all discussed. Learn how the future of our children and the safety of our society can be protected in this compelling work.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Nancy Williams, MA, MFT, IBCLC, CCE Margie Deutsch Lash, MEd, IBCLC, E-RYT Gretchen Andrews, IBCLC, BA, RLC Shawn Crane, BA Together the authors have over 100 years of experience working with mothers, babies and children in the fields of childbirth, lactation, and education. While coming from very different backgrounds and worldviews, they are uniquely suited to discussing these issues of utmost importance to babies, children, parents, and most important society at-large. Enlightenment and empowerment can only exist in a world where people are aware of the problems that affect their daily lives.
